

STANDING CHEST PRESS

The Maxfit Maximus NX Standing Chest Press is a premium commercial upper body machine engineered to deliver powerful chest pressing performance through a functional standing movement pattern. Designed with multiple grip positions, full-range pressing mechanics, and enhanced body stabilization, the machine provides intense activation of the chest, shoulders, triceps, and core while promoting natural upper body movement and strength development.

Standing chest press movement ✦ for functional upper body strength

Full range of motion for deeper muscle activation and contraction ✦

5 horizontal grips and 1 neutral grip for varied muscle recruitment ✦

Multiple grip positions for customized pressing angles and hand placement ✦

Standing posture enhances core engagement and overall stability ✦

Easy Locking System using your legs ✦

Targets pectoralis major, anterior deltoids, triceps, and core stabilizers

Dimensions (L x W x H): 1530 x 1055 x 1880 mm
Net Weight: 165 kg

PRESS HARDER. STABILIZE STRONGER. BUILD A CHEST THAT PERFORMS.